Tuesday Morning Expansion Fills Last Available Space in Pompano Plaza

MIAMI BEACH, FL – September 9, 2015 – In need of home goods but don't want to spend an exorbitant amount? You are in luck, Pompano's favorite home goods retailer Tuesday Morning is expanding in Pompano Plaza.

Terranova has signed an 11-year lease with Tuesday Morning to expand their store from 9,764 to 16,401 square feet at 1405 South Federal Highway with the new, larger store projected to open Summer 2016.

Founded in 1974 by Lloyd Ross, Tuesday Morning is a discount home goods retailer with locations spanning across the United States. The company originated as an upscale garage sale business which quickly gained loyal followers and led to their expansion into their own store. Today, they carry an array of items including fashion accessories, pet products, gifts, luggage, outdoor furnishings, and products for every room of your home.

Tuesday Morning's success at Pompano Plaza led to their expansion into the adjacent space almost doubling their size to over 16,000 square feet. The 40 percent increase of additional square footage will allow the store to add a larger variety of products to its selling floor, better serving the community. Their new larger location will serve as a flagship store for the company as they continue to expand nationwide.

"Tuesday Morning has been in Pompano Plaza for over 18 years and while many tenants look to reduce their footprint, it is great to see successful retailers expanding," says Terranova's commercial associate India Turkell who represented the landlord in the deal.

Tuesday Morning is located in a Publix anchored shopping center amongst Marshalls, Dunkin Donuts, and Office Depot.
