Lincoln Road master plan

Lincoln Road will be undertaking a unique transformation that will embrace its rich culture and diversity while infusing a more eclectic, bold, cultural and community-driven focus. The master plan aims to create physical and operational improvements for the pedestrian portion of Lincoln Road and its adjacent streets including, more public seating, spaces for art installations and a refreshed pavement design that will convert the road into an immersive and multi-faceted destination.

The planned transformation of the road will take the convergence of Miami locals and international tourists to a new level through art, design, music, gastronomy, culture and fashion.
