

TERRANOVA'S BITTEL WELCOMES MULTIPLE TENANTS POPPING UP ON LINCOLN ROAD

MIAMI BEACH, FL October 15, 2020 – With the holidays quickly approaching, Terranova's Chairman, Stephen Bittel is thrilled to announce a plethora of new brands popping up on Lincoln Road for your holiday shopping needs.

Three new retailers, locally grown in Miami Beach, join the vibrant mix of dining destinations and retail outlets on Lincoln Road. This eclectic group of new retailers, carefully selected for their local flavor, include:

- Plant Daddy, your neighborhood retail garden center, opened a 348 square foot space at 808 North Lincoln Lane. Owner Gabriel Diaz, nicknamed the Plant Daddy, launched the concept in June in honor of his late mother.
- Jozy DeFord opened her 348 square foot vintage shop, Renegade Rustlers at 804 North Lincoln Lane. An established merchant in the Lincoln Road Antique Market, DeFord's first brick-and-mortar location opened October 23rd.
- Sol + Sorbet is the newest addition and set to open November 2020 at 816 North Lincoln Lane. Created by Miami Beach resident Gina Kravitz in 2018, Sol + Sorbet is a resort wear and swimwear brand.

Joining existing micro suite tenants, Havana 1957 Cuban Coffee and Fast Connect, these three retailers bring all of our micro suites at 100 percent occupancy.

"These micro pop-ups bring excitement and diversity to Lincoln Road retail and create opportunities for more local and start-up concepts to locate themselves in a bustling and enviable location without a great deal of risk," says Stephen Bittel, Chairman and Founder of Terranova Corporation.

Plant Daddy, Renegade Rustlers, and Sol + Sorbet will be located just off Lincoln Road on the corner of Meridian Avenue and North Lincoln Lane, neighboring Anthropologie, Dylan's Candy Shop, Marshalls and The Lincoln Eatery.
